On behalf of the Serbian Orthodox Cathedral of Saint Sava, we appeal to you to join us in the renovation of our spiritual home, which according to the words of His Grace Bishop Irinej, represents much more than recovery of stone and mortar. It means the restoration of the spirit of hope and faith as the very fundamentals that keep the faithful going. The church's architecture, art and external features are indeed a reflection of the future everlasting reality, which consists of splendid beauty as well as assurance that where there is faith there is no place for failure or despair.

"These walls have been imbued with so many prayers and for that reason they could not come down. For this building stands as a monument to Bishop Nicholai for his Serbian people and the love of Bishop William Manning, the tenth Episcopal Bishop of New York, who gifted this church to the Serbian people. And so with God's help we begin transfiguring this charred remain but resplendent church, so that one day as we walk into it we might exclaim like the great Emperor Justinian, 'Solomon, I have outdone you!'"
